

About Technology Executive Group

Technology Executive Group (TEG) was founded in 1995 with a mission of assisting technology companies around the world in hiring high impact professionals. It is this mission coupled with our disciplined approach to each practice area that has enabled TEG to enjoy over 90 percent of repeat business from our trusted client base.

All of our practitioners have personally worked inside technology companies and in many cases have performed similar duties and endured similar responsibilities to the clients we serve. We understand the nuances of our client's business and have personal long term relationships with the A players in each practice area. Our clients consistently label us as "highly responsive" to their needs and we offer a menu of flexible services tailored to each client's solution.

TEG OnStaff provides unique solutions that can easily be tailored to fit your company. Whether you need to fill a few challenging positions, significantly expand your staff, or upgrade your talent, our OnStaff solutions are designed to provide qualified and interested candidates quickly.

Our solutions provide the same methodology performed in our Retainer Based recruiting model. However, instead of a fee percentage, clients pay only for the actual hours of services rendered. TEG OnStaff is a great solution for your mid-level needs when you need to get more out of your budget or when it is necessary to augment and improve the speed and pool of high caliber candidates.

Our search consultants have the expertise, industry contacts, client knowledge and credibility expected by a top-tiered company. Organizationally we have successfully completed over 2000 searches in the past 12 years. We are a proven source in uncovering superior talent and providing innovative recruitment solutions. Our ability to partner with your organization and provide qualified candidates within a 3 week time frame has set us apart from others in the search industry. Additionally, our solution saves internal HR staff a tremendous amount of qualification time by only presenting highly qualified interested candidates.

Our track record of success has resulted in over 90 percent of our new recruitment assignments coming from repeat business and client referrals. TEG prides itself in partnering with clients for the long-term, and our relationship does not end when we conclude an assignment. Value added services that we provide on an on-going basis include: on-boarding assistance, compensation surveys and global recruitment solutions for your international needs.
